LYLE WOODS

June 16, 1975

Reserved

My darling Lyle,

This is probably the hardest part of my senior year - signing your yearbook. I've been thinking and thinking, trying to find enough words to cover our relationships, and to confine it all to two pages. Maybe I shouldn't have been a lexicographer, because I don't think I can do it.

I'll start at least a short run-down of our years together at HHS. I somehow missed meeting you during my first semester of my freshman year. That was akin to starting off on the wrong foot. Then a second semester rolled around. I wasn't too thrilled about being in Cooper's class (until I actually attended class for a little while) but you were there with jokes and smiles, making every day fun. I'll never forget your "fairy" joke. On our final, with the translating "American Pie." I'm very thankful I was sick for the first two weeks, 'cause I got to sit behind you.

Then our sophomore year arrived. You were in my English class with Mr. Welker. I even got to sit near you without fighting for the chance! It was a lot of fun that first semester you have to admit. Second semester came, and that class just wasn't the same without you. At least I had a different seat; the old one would have held too many memories.

September of '73 came and we were juniors! I was so lucky to be with you in both Spanish 3 and Mr. Lindquist's Shakespeare. (What was with us? We always met in a language class of some kind!) We read "couple" parts opposite each other. I watched your growing attachment to Diane with concern, yet I left you alone. After butting in full force between you and Suzanne, I had decided to let you make your own decisions. You seemed happy, and that's what mattered. Besides, I still saw a lot of fun times, and a lot of you. You came to me with problems, and I helped you as best I could.

Then you got hurt. I couldn't stand the thought of you asking for me and my not being there, so I came. Just seeing that you weren't dying left me feeling so much better. I had been sick with worry. A couple days later you asked me to give up Jack and come to you. You told me that you loved me. I was touched, so much so that I really didn't know what to do. So I turned you down.

I stayed nearby throughout the rest of our junior year, and sweated it out with you when things didn't go well with you. I was happy when you were so happy with April. I made that discouragement with every ounce of love I could put into it, even though it was for April, because I was essentially making it for you. I cried with you when your relationship with April fell apart. I did what I could to help you pick up the pieces and start again, but I don't think I did enough.

At last, our senior year arrived. The Big me! I saw less and less of you, but I reserved of you, but I treasured the times I did have because they were so special. Whenever you had problems, I tried to help. It was all I could do, because your life is yours alone to live.

You helped me over many a rough spot this year
as you have in past years. I saw it and appreciated it more, because my situation has been deteriorating.
I only hope I can keep picking myself up as you have.
Lyle, when you asked me to go to grad nite with you,
I just about flipped. You made me so happy just by caring enough to even consider me, that there was no way I could really, honestly consider turning you down.
Even the horrible problems that resulted were bearable,
because I knew I was going with you.

The night itself was a dream come true. When I stood at that wishing well, I knew I had a choice.
I could wish for myself and my problems, and be disappointed and totally screwed up. Or I could wish for you and me and that beautiful night, and spend the rest of my life happy with the lovely memories. There really was no choice, no consideration to be given.
With you, Lyle, things just naturally seem to come true for me. I've never been disappointed or unhappy with you.

You know I care deeply for you. You have planted a seed of love in my heart that grows bigger every day. With you I can be myself, and be entirely natural, 'cause I know you're just as nutty
as I am! I'm at home with you, and I'm wonderfully happy. There's no other way to put it.

I cannot say that I love you as you love me.
That wouldn't be fair to either of us, because I am changing as fast as the year. But I do love you in a very unique way, for I feel toward no one the way I feel toward you. I have loved you as an acquaintance, a friend, a brother, and a man. There just aren't too many ways to go from there.

No matter what becomes of ^{Something will have gone}
us in the future, ^{out of us as a people}
you. You are a I'll always love and remember ^{if we ever let the remaining}

to give you up either, babe!

Forever yours, Lyle, in all ways.

like being with you. Even while you were upset over your accident I had a chance to see the real and wonderful you. Like I said, two people can't really share between them until they have shared both the good and the bad. We've had a lot of good and a little bad. I consider us lucky.

I guess I have a confession to make. I went to Jack's house last night to be "alone" with him, as that maybe we could resolve some of our problems. It just wasn't the same, Kyle. The old magic between us was gone, and there were times when I loathed his touch.

To tell you the truth, I kept thinking of you! Your gentleness, your devotion over the years. Ever since I met you I knew how much you liked me. I didn't know when I it turned into love, but I soon found out. I don't know when I'll get my mind all straightened out. My emotional problems will straighten out after that. It isn't fair to keep you on a shelf this way. But without giving you a green light, I guess I could say you're winning.

An inexperienced Viking wrestling team set as their season objective a winning season. This was achieved with a 9 and 8 score meet Record and a 3rd place finish in Dual Channel League Tournament. Considering all but two wrestlers will return next year, according to coach Petrich, the Vike's should be league contenders. Although the league records were a disappointing 114, our young team was in every match down to the last weights. Eight wrestlers returned who placed in the league tournament.

J.V.'s Hustle

The J.V. Record for the season was 4 wins and 3 losses, considering the number of freshmen of the team and the fact that many J.V. wrestlers were moved up to varsity in various matches during the season, the season was a success. The most optimistic factor for next year is the fact the J.V.'s most outstanding wrestlers will be filling the gaps.

This years varsity was relatively inexperienced and going in age and school year. Entering the season we had many individuals with ability who performed at varying stages of maturation as players.

As they gained experience in pre-season they turned in a creditable performance in Kioque play. With four juniors in the starting line up, this will definitely be termed a building year. The experience gained this year will go a long way in determining success in future years.

Homecoming: Music '74

"Music '74"

That was the theme for this year's Homecoming, and what a Homecoming! The week started with greased-pole climbing, sack races, pie eating contests, and ended with a terrific victory over Buena. The beautiful floats paraded by at half-time, headed by the Juniors who took first place. Highlighting the evening was the presentation of the '74-'75 Homecoming court.

Senior's grab 2nd with "Midnight Train to Georgia."

Sophomore's "Stairway to Heaven" ends up with 3rd.

Junior's "Jungle Boogie" takes 1st.

Precious Moments

During the evening of March 1, 1975 at the Casa Serena, the Hueneme Girl's League presented the Spring Formal "Precious Moments." The couples danced to the music of the Enchanting Souls as the others had their pictures taken. Then the evening continued its climax, as the presentation of the Queen and her court were announced by Mr. Seidler. The dance ended at 12:00 p.m., but the precious moments lived on.

The girls in Girls' Glee work to learn the basic skills in singing that may eventually earn them a place in the concert choir. Singing with this group could also lead to be honored by being chosen as a madrigal.

The Hueneme Concert Choir has a full year of concerts and programs to keep them busy. They attend schools and sing for children of lower grades. They rehearse for musicals and every spring they look forward to the Spring Concert.

Speech

The Speech Club competes in competitions throughout the state of California. This club gives students a chance to express themselves verbally and overcome their fear of public speaking.

Nancy Nickerson, Trudy Linten, Bob Stowe, Robin Sharpe, David Jackson.

At the Crossroads

You to the left and I to the right,
For the ways of friends must sever —
And it well may be for a day and a night
And it well may be forever.
But whether we meet or whether we part
(For our ways are past our knowing),
A pledge from a heart to a fellow heart
On the ways we all are going Here's Luck!
For we know not where we are going.

I'm dedicating
this poem
to us, Lyle!

This annual is a collective effort of not only myself and Miss Taylor, but of all the editors and staff members who gave up their time to make this book.

It is the earnest hope of the Voyage staff that as the years go on, this yearbook will be regarded as our final tribute to a year just ended.

Lyle
I'm glad I got to know you. You a pretty cool guy. We've had a lot of fun and I hope we'll have a lot more.

Lyle,
Where have you been this year?
I've only seen you about 2 times
1/2 now I won't be seeing you anymore.
Oh well, maybe I'll see you sometime this summer.
Is it a deal -- I challenge you to a match -- when I see you. I wish you the best of success in the big bad world!

"21" Cudo!

I have been thinking of you
 a great deal lately
 and wondering how
 you are getting on.
 I hope you are
 well and happy.
 I have been very busy lately, but I will try to write to you more often.
 Love,
 Anna Bell

Style,
well this has been one hell of a year,
and now's the time for booze & beer.
Celebrate Friday for that's the day,
when all of us shall go away.
Parting is a thing that's filled with sorrow,
but we have to look forward towards tomorrow.
So as you go on around the bend,
think of me as your friend

Life, We're known each other for about six years
now. I'll really wish you didn't move from across the street cuz
now I don't get to see ya every much. I wish you luck in the future and success in what ever you do.
See ya in the summer

Love Always
